Bosch opened the “café 1886 at Bosch” in 2015, and since then Bosch has operated the café as a location to communicate its brand to customers as well as to interact with the local community. Currently, Bosch is constructing a new corporate headquarters and R&D facility and the Tsuzuki Ward Cultural Center (official nickname: Bosch Hall) in the Tsuzuki Ward of Yokohama City, and will move to the new building in 2024 after construction is completed. Due to this relocation, “café 1886 at Bosch” will close its Shibuya location on March 31, 2024. After the move, however, Bosch plans to build synergistic liveliness between the new Bosch building and Bosch Hall, including the opening of a new “café 1886 at Bosch” on the first floor of the new building.
