- ▶ Public viewing event for the SUPER GT Round 4 race at Fuji Speedway to be held at the Bosch Corporation Yokohama headquarters on Sunday, August 2, 2026.
- ▶ Talk show featuring racing drivers Kohei Hirate and Atsushi Yogo.
- ▶ Special campaign in collaboration with café 1886 at Bosch.
- ▶ Family-friendly activities including a photo spot, balloon art, and a coloring activity will be offered.
- ▶ A SUPER GT photo exhibition will be held simultaneously at the gallery of the Bosch Hall.

Yokohama, Japan – Bosch, a leading global supplier of technology and services, will host a public viewing event for the final race of the SUPER GT Round 4 at Fuji Speedway. The event will take place on the first floor of the Bosch headquarters on Sunday, August 2, 2026.

In addition to the public viewing, the event will feature a special talk show. Two-time GT500 class series champion Kohei Hirate and former GT300 driver Atsushi Yogo will share insights into the appeal of SUPER GT, Japan's premier auto racing series. On the day of the event, café 1886 at Bosch, located on the first floor of the headquarters, will run a special one-day promotional campaign. To ensure families can enjoy the event together, there will also be a children's area with balloon art and mobility-themed coloring activities.

Furthermore, from Wednesday, July 29 to Sunday, August 2, a "Bosch × SUPER GT Photo Exhibition" will be held at the gallery on the first floor of the Bosch Hall, next to the headquarters. The exhibition will feature a selection of dynamic race photos from this year's SUPER GT season.
